In order to support organizations planning to apply to “Naseej: Connecting Voices and Action to End Violence against Women and Girls in the MENA Region”, Oxfam will deliver a series of informational activities.

Oxfam in Iraq is providing with a list of frequently asked questions (FAQ) and the correspondent answers. In the cases such information is not enough, or different inquiries arise, applicants can address their questions to iraqnaseej@oxfam.org.uk until the 1st of August. Submitted questions will be collected and the answers will be published on the NCCI website for easy access.

Oxfam in Iraq is also providing with two informational sessions to be held online during each application period. The first session will be held 21st of July and will cover and overview of the Naseej project as well as the eligibility and selection criteria. The second session will be held online on the 6th of August and will address how to fill all the application forms and explain all required documents for submission. All sessions will be held in Arabic and will be recorded and shared on the NCCI page the call is launched. Sessions in Kurdish language are available upon request.

In order to register for the online sessions, interested organizations have to send an email to iraqnaseej@oxfam.org.uk and will receive the invitation and meeting details.
